

PROCLAMATION

It has for many years been customary for the President of the United States and the Governors of the various States of the Union, to designate, by official proclamation, May Day as the date of the initiation of a Child Health project for the ensuing year.

Public Health authorities of the Nation and of our State are busily engaged in plans for the improved physical care of children and the betterment of social conditions under which they live.

South Dakota Health authorities have chosen as their clogan for 1936:

SECURITY AND SAFETY FOR CHILDREN!

And now, therefore, I, Tom Berry, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 1, 1936 as Child Health Day for this State, and ask that all parents, schools, organizations, physicians and dentists give their loyal and hearty support to the working out of these plans for healthier, happier childhood.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of South Dakota.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Pierre, this 7th day of March, 1936.

Tom Berry
Governor
